

Rituparna Sengupta provides support to under privileged children

Kolkata, Oct 9 (IBNS): Actress Rituparna Sengupta as a part of her philanthropic activities on Monday visited NGO Prayas and Disha to showcase the talent of economically challenged children.

Prayas, which has 25 students who are also part of choreographer Avirup Sengupta's Oddisi Troupe associated with Disha, organized a dance performances by these children.

Speaking on the occasion, the actress said, "I am associated with Disha and Prayas since a long time and am extremely happy with the great work they are doing for these talented kids."

She was accompanied by the Chairman of Vedic Village R.K.Modi who as well provides financial assistance to the NGOs.

Modi said, "Music is such a thing which makes everyone happy. In past we are involved with many such social activities and hope to be associated with such activities in future."

Rituparna also commented, "I feel proud that Mr. Modi has extended his support to these children."

The children were gifted music systems besides several other surprise gifts.
